Back Row: D. Fishbach, T. Ladipo, A. Warshaw, S. Gryzmala, S. Kyle, A. Black (Advisor), T. Seifert, C. Mayer, E. Rhee.

House Managers

Student House Managers are selected for each upperclass residential area of Kenyon. They function as a liaison for their residents with the Housing Office or any other office with which the students come in contact.

Front Row: C. Durrant, M. Stern, L. Baroody, K. Graf, K. Aepli.
Second Row: J. Ross (Advisor), T. Dobson, L. Johnson, E. Donovan, L. Lambert.
Back Row: T. Krugman, M. Mason, M. Lavine, J. Perry, R. Milt.

Freshman Council

The Freshman Council is the official representative body for discussion, organization and action by freshmen students. They are the standing committee for Student Council and Senate.

The members of Freshman Council.

APSO

APSO offers students a unique opportunity to help improve the quality of life for the people of Lincoln County, West Virginia, while enriching their own Kenyon experience. Volunteers try to meet the needs of economically disadvantaged Appalachians.

Members Pictured:

K. Downey, S. Price, K. Filipic, M. Pawlicki.

Circle K

Circle K is a service organization designed to allow college students to play a more active, helpful role in the lives of community members and fellow students. Each club is sponsored by a local Kiwanis Club and shares the same motto, "We Build." Circle K emphasizes personal and leadership development. The only requirements for membership are a willingness to serve, commitment to humankind, and dedication and adherence to the ideals of the organization.

The members of Circle K.

Kenyon Democrats

Our organization serves as a vital link between Democrats on campus and the political world, on both a local and a national level. We help to educate students about relevant political issues and assist in campaigns.

The members of Kenyon Democrats.

Student Lectureships

The Student Lectureship Committee, sponsored by Student Council, brings interesting and dynamic speakers from around the world to Kenyon. With an objective of diversity, Student Lectureships has introduced a plethora of politicians, writers, scientists, and performers.

The members of Student Lectureships.

ALSO

Allied Sexual Organization (ALSO) provides a forum for students and faculty members of all sexualities to educate the Kenyon community on lesbian, gay, and bisexual issues. ALSO is committed to dispelling myths and stereotypes and to combating heterosexism and homophobia. This is accomplished through educational program-like discussions, student and faculty panels, guest speakers, films, and social events.

The members of ALSO.

Worldly Wisdom

Worldly Wisdom, a student organization dedicated to providing objective and accessible publications, provides a weekly review of world news. Once or twice a semester special issues are published which focus specifically on international issues or situations. Through its reporting of current political and social incidents, the group raises international understanding within the community.

The members of Worldly Wisdom.

Kenyon College Hillel

Hillel is a student run organization whose purpose is enhancing and maintaining the Jewish community at Kenyon. We offer a variety of both social and religious activities to students and the community, including movie nights and bagel brunches, weekly Shabbat services, High Holiday services, holiday celebrations, and an annual retreat.

The members of Kenyon College Hillel.

American Chemical Society

The Kenyon Chapter of the American Chemical Society Student Affiliates promotes a better understanding of chemistry and its impact within the Kenyon Community. The group provides opportunities for students to learn about chemistry through guest lecturers and field trips, as well as its annual "Chemistry: Is it magic?" show.

The Members of the American Chemical Society.

SMAC

The Student Medical Advisory Committee (SMAC) is a group of students with a shared interest in promoting health among the student body at Kenyon College. We plan to act as an informative agency, addressing medical issues in order to heighten awareness and bridge the gap between students and the medical personnel. We are determined to provide programs that enhance healthy lifestyles and to sponsor events of special medical concern.

The members of SMAC.

Dyer Society

The purpose of the Dyer Society is to support and educate students interested in a health profession as a career. Speakers, informal gatherings, and shared practical knowledge relating to a health professional life are all part of what makes this club informative as well as fun.

Members Pictured:

N. Qaimari, K. Bauman, K. Oliver, N. Luong.

The Collegian

The Kenyon Collegian - published every Thursday during the academic year and distributed in the dining halls and mailed to off-campus subscribers - focuses on events on campus and in the Gambier community. The paper includes a regular format of news, features, commentary, sports, photographs, and original cartoon work. The office is located in Chase Tower at the top of the main stairway of Peirce Hall.

The Wiz

The cast and crew of the Kenyon Musical Theatre Review production of the Wiz.

The Chamber Singers

The Kenyon College Chamber Singers tour off campus as well as on campus. They sing a variety of songs ranging from classical to traditional. Conductor: Benjamin Locke.

The Members of the Chamber Singers.

Wednesday Night Movie Club

The Wednesday Night Movie Club is a collection of individuals who enjoy watching a diverse selection of films. They meet once a week to view a film, and then discuss the various attributes of the experience. The group focuses both on the experience of watching the film and strengthening friendships with those who are of a similar mind.

Members pictured:
J. Jordan, Z. Nowak, M. Armey, W. Federspiel, B. Goodson, M. Klein.

WKCO 91.9 FM

WKCO, 91.9 FM is Gambier's only FCC controlled organization. An entirely student-run activity, WKCO prides itself in its many types of entertainment from Sports Talk to Health Hour to the top hits on the college charts. WKCO is on the air from 7 AM to 2 AM seven days a week while classes are in session.

Kenyon College Pealers

The College Pealers serenade the campus with the chapel bells every Friday afternoon, on holidays, and during college academic ceremonies such as Honors Day and Graduation. The Pealers perform traditional bell ringing, hymns, school songs, and the occasional pop tune as part of a long-time Kenyon tradition.

NIA

NIA was the second sorority formed at Kenyon. The main goal of NIA is to provide a service organization for the betterment of the African-American community at large. NIA promotes awareness of the achievements and needs of African-Americans through planned events and projects. NIA serves as a support system through which sisterhood provides members with a common ground.

The members of NIA.

Brothers United

Brother's United, Kenyon's most recent addition to Greek life, is a local fraternity established in the spring of 1994. The primary objective of the fraternity is to support African and African American males at Kenyon College. The fraternity strives for excellence in all endeavors, and community service is an integral part of the organization. The fraternity will be open to all Kenyon men who possess certain academic criteria and who show a genuine interest in the organization and its goals.

The members of Brothers United.

ρσνπβσδκ

ρσνπβσδκ is a group of Kenyon men who simply go by the name ρσνπβσδκ.

Members pictured:

M. Pawlicki, S. Haider, R. Milt, D. Cooney. (not pictured - B. Shileds)

Phi Kappa Sigma

Phi Kappa Sigma strives to achieve the objective of brotherhood, scholarship and personal conduct set forth by the founders. The chapter has been active in athletics, student government, community service and academics. A strong national office has provided over $10,000 in scholarships to brothers in the past four years. The chapter maintains a successful balance between brotherhood and individuality.

-Bohumil Hiabal

It's goodbye to all my friends. It's time to go again. Think of all the poetry and all the pickin' down the line. I'll miss the system here, the bottom's low and the treble's clear, but it don't pay to think too much on the things you leave behind. I may be gone, but I won't be long. I'll be bringing back the melody and all the rhythm that I find.

-Oscar Wilde

Kathryn C. Lewis ~ Sociology

Authority is to be ridiculed, outwitted, and avoided. And it's fairly easy to do all three. If you believe in peace, act peacefully; if you believe in love, act lovingly; if you believe in every which way, then act every which way.

-Tom Robbins

Kristen Hess ~ Psychology

Don't be dismayed at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments of lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.

-The Second Part of King Henry the Fourth, Act V,
Scene 2

I've discovered that all you need to make life really pleasant, at some moments anyway, is some onions, some mushrooms, some oil, a little garlic and a short memory.
-Folk Singer Judy Collins

I'm dwelling, live close to the ground. In thinking, keep

Mike Raven - Music

I know almost absolutely nothing about absolutely very little. But that's great, because this feeling of wonder, it's the greatest sensation in the world. It keeps me alive.

-John McLaughlin

Daryl Zakov - Political Science

I'm a thousand miles from nowhere;
Time don't matter to me.
'Cause I'm a thousand miles from nowhere;
And there's no place I'd rather be.

-Dwight Yoakam

You say the hill's too steep to climb, try me.
You say you'd like to see me try, climb me.
You pick the place and I'll choose the time.
And I'll climb...that hill in my own way.
Just wait a while, for the right day.
And when I rise above, the tree-line and the clouds.
I look down...hear the sound,
of the things you said today.

- Waters and Gilmour

Kevin E. Pettigrew - Anthropology

Connections. The lesson we learn from trout. The connection between a mayfly and the ring of a rising fish. The connection between drainage from a mine and no trout. The bond that forms when sharing love, father and son, brother and sister. Friends. If our concentration is fierce enough, we find safe harbor, if only for an afternoon, in the holy water of a trout stream.

-C. Newman

Ben C. Robertson, IV - History

For whatever you live is life. That is something to remember when you meet the old classmate who says, "Gee, I got the sweetest little wife and three of the swellest kids ever." You must remember it when you sit in hotel lobbies or lean over bars to talk to the bartender or stand in a dark street at night in early March. For the time has come to hand me down the walking cane, for I got to catch that midnight train, for all my sin is taken away. For whatever you live is life.

These are for people who like to make their own word, the man in charge informed him. You can pick any assortment you like or buy a special box complete with all letters, punctuation marks, and a box of instructions. Here, taste an A, they're very good. Milo nibbled carefully at the letter and discovered that it was quite sweet and delicious - just the way you'd expect an A to taste.

I knew you'd like it, laughed the letter man, popping two G's and an R into his mouth and letting the juice drip down his chin. A's are one of our most popular letters. All of them aren't that good, he confided in a low voice. Take the Z, for instance - very dry and sawdusty. And the X? Why, it tastes like a trunkful of stale air. That's why people hardly ever ate them. But most of the others are quite tasty. Try some more. He gave Milo an I, which was icy and refreshing, and took a crisp, crunchy C. Most people are just too lazy to make their own words, he continued, but it's much more fun.

Commencement Weekend 1996

May 17-19

The 1996 Graduation ceremonies marked the one hundred sixty-eighth commencement in Kenyon's history. The invocation was given by the Reverend Wayne I. Nicholson P'95, '96, '98 followed by the Welcome by President Robert A. Oden Jr. Four honorary degrees were given during the ceremony. A Doctor of Science was given to Gordon Lee Johnson, Professor of Chemistry, Kenyon College. A Doctor of Laws was given to Margaret Carlson. A Doctor of Humane Letters was awarded to George Steiner. Agnes Gund was awarded a Doctor of Fine Arts. George Steiner, distinguished author, educator, and literary critic, gave the Commencement Address. Craig W. Bradley, Dean of Students presented the Class of 1996, and President Oden, Associate Professor Slonczewski, Registrar Richard L. Switzer, and Director of Multicultural Affairs Pamela S. Frost handed out the diplomas. Todd Douglas Krugman, Senior Class President, rounded out the ceremony with his address to the Class of 1996. Reverend Nicholson gave the benediction to conclude the ceremony.

Senior Week and Baccalaureate

Senior Week offers a time for the members of the senior class to celebrate their accomplishments with the friends they have made during their previous four years at Kenyon. Various activities are planned for the enjoyment of the class. The Baccalaureate Ceremony is followed by the traditional Senior Sing on the steps of Rosse Hall.

Inaguration of President Robert A. Oden, Jr.

Old Kenyon, we are like Kokosing
Obedient to some strange spell,
Which urges us from all reposing;
Farewell, Old Kenyon, Fare thee well.

And yet we are not like Kokosing
Which beareth not upon its swell,
But foam of motion's own composing;
Farewell, Old Kenyon, Fare thee well.

But when we are far from Kokosing
We still shall hear a creaking
When round us evening shadows are closing,
Farewell, Old Kenyon, Fare thee well.

And see a river like Kokosing
In meadows sweet with anemone,
Where memory dwells dear past supposing,
Farewell, Old Kenyon, Fare thee well.
